MRS. ALVIN FELLER LAID TO REST

A LARGELY ATTENDED FUNERAL HELD ON SUNDAY.

The funeral of Mrs. Alvin Feller took place Sunday, Jan. 6, 1918. A short service was held at the home and at 1 o'clock at the Bethel church. The pastor, Rev. G. H. Kowalke, preached from the very appropriate text Jer. 15:9, "Her sun is gone down while it was yet day." Interment was made in Scotland cemetery.

Mrs. Feller had been in poor health and was under the doctor's care for some time, when it finally became necessary for her to undergo an operation. She was taken to Kirksville, Mo., by her husband, Mr. Feller. Here all that medical skill could do was done and for a time hope was entertained for her recovery. But her condition was far more serious than at first thought and she passed away Jan. 3, 1918.

Lola Loretta Robinson was born at Wells, Minn., December 5, 1881, and passed away at the A. S. O. hospital in Kirksville, Mo., Jan. 3, 1918, at the age of 36 years and 28 days. She came to Brown county with her parents when about ten years of age and resided here until the time of her death. She was united in marriage to Alvin C. Feller on Jan. 8, 1902. This happy union was blessed with eight children: Merle, Donald, Wayne, Delton, Harlowe, Alvin, Jason and Lola Dale, all living.

She is survived by her sorrowing husband, eight children, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, two brothers, Lloyd and Harlowe Robinson, two sisters, Mrs. Howard Place, all of Lemmon, S. D., and Mrs. Herbert Ham, of Marmarth, N. D., besides a host of relatives and friends. She was a member of the Evangelical church for several years and a devoted Christian.

Unselfishness was the keynote to her whole life, and her untiring devotion and love for her family will be remembered by all who knew her. The many beautiful flowers given by her friends bespoke the high esteem in which she was held.

Relatives from a distance who attended the funeral are: Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Robinson, Mr. Lloyd Robinson and Mrs. Howard place, all of Lemmon, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Powers, of Salem, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Mill In-sley, of Mima, S. D.; Mrs. Will Robinson, of Milbank; Mr. F. J. Feller, of Aberdeen and Mr. Ivan Feller, of Mobridge.

Dearest Lola, thou hast left us
And our loss we deeply feel
But 'tis God that has bereft us
He can all our sorrow heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee
When the day of life is fled
When in heaven in joy to greet thee
Where no farewell tear is shed.
